

ADP 9/25 paid $5,550 — not $9,900, not even $7,800

ADP Pay day Sep 25, 2026 · 1099 Compensation $5,550.00 · no deductions · screenshot 11:02

ADP paid $5,550. That is $4,350 short of the Sep 13 call ($9,900) and $2,250 short of Cole's own lock ($7,800). $5,550 = 21 × $250 + a $300 fee. Their lock is 30 hospital hours + $300. Nine hours are missing even under their story.

25TH — CALL VS COLE VS ADP

Shift	Your call	Cole lock	ADP
Sep 8 · 4h hospital	$1,000	$1,000
Sep 10 · 12h hospital	$3,000	$3,000
Sep 14 · 4h hospital	$1,000	$1,000
Sep 15 on-call 8h	$2,400	$300 flat
Sep 15 in hospital 6h	$1,500	$1,500
Sep 19 Midtown 4h	$1,000	$1,000
Should have been	$9,900.00	$7,800.00
ADP 9/25 actually paid			$5,550.00

You generated $10,326.32 Roslyn positive Gross + $598.64 Midtown ≈ $10,925 they billed. 23% of that is $2,512.74, below either hourly, so $0 production on this check. His $8,473.67 is that Gross after they stripped discounts, credits, and Darcy. The fight on the 25th is only the on-call night.
